WILL PROVIDE 1-WAY TRAFFIC ON 2 STREETS

Gettysburg Borough Council Monday night took the first step toward providing one-way traffic on South St. and the first block of Breckenridge St.

Council adopted a resolution directing the solicitor to prepare for adoption next month an ordinance providing for one-way traffic east on Breckenridge St. from S. Washington to Baltimore St. and for one-way traffic west on South St., from Baltimore to S. Washington St.

Councilmen said the two streets are too narrow to continue two-way traffic, particularly during winter months when snow accumulates.

ORDER NEW LIGHTS

Resolutions were adopted to install a 4,000-lumen street light in the Recreation Park parking area; to install a 4,000 lumen light in the Recreation Park 35 feet north and 10 feet east of the restaurant building; and install a 4,000-lumen light on an unnamed alley west of Baltimore St. approximately 250 feet south of South St.

Resolutions were adopted to increase power of 10 street lights to 4,000 lumen. Some of the lights currently are 1,000 lumen, others 2,500. The lights are at the intersection of Franklin and High Sts.; Breckenridge St. and the alley one block west of S. Washington St.; three lights on N. Washington St. on the east side between Water St. and Race Horse Alley; the light at the intersection of Race Horse Alley and N. Washington St.; the light at the intersection of Seminary Ave. and Howard Ave.; the light at the intersection of Highland Ave. and Johns St.; the light at the alley west of Steinwehr Ave.; a light at the intersection of South St. and the first alley west of Baltimore St.

Local Trio Jailed On Morals Charges

Three Gettysburg men were placed in the county jail Monday on charges of corrupting the morals of minors when they were unable to furnish bail for a hearing on the charges brought by state police before Justice of the Peace Robert F. Snyder.

State police said the charges resulted from investigation of a party held at the home of Bernard F. Rosensteel, 22, of 30 Mummsburg St., on November 29, at which it was alleged that minors attending the party consumed alcoholic beverages. Arrested with Rosensteel on the "corrupting" charges were James William Townsend, 22, 130 Breckenridge St., and Ronald Eugene Doakes, 20, 280 S. Washington St. Doakes and Townsend were placed in the jail at 4:35 Monday afternoon and Rosensteel at 9:55 Monday night.

GETS 3 MONTHS FOR ROBBING PHONE BOXES

Robert Booker Jr., 28, Harrisburg, was sentenced Monday afternoon to from three to six months in the Adams County jail on burglary and larceny charges.

State Policeman Charles J. Todd told the court that Booker and a companion had removed the telephones from public booths at the Penn Supreme plant and Distelfink along the Harrisburg Rd. Later, enroute to Harrisburg, they opened the coin boxes, removing $30 from the one taken at Penn Supreme and $20 from the one at the Distelfink and then threw the broken phones into a field. Damage to the phones was estimated at $300.

Booker and his companion later were cornered by Maryland state police in a barn in Maryland. The companion committed suicide as police approached, Trooper Todd said.

ARGUE EQUITABLE SUIT

Booker said he had served 11 months and 20 days in Maryland prison on charges there, then was paroled to Harrisburg and served five months and 15 days in Dauphin County prison. From there he was transferred to the Adams County prison December 24. His three-to-six-month sentence here will begin as of December 24, the court directed.

Frank A. Shearer, Chambersburg, charged with burglary of the Silver Dollar in July, 1961, was given a suspended sentence and placed on probation for one year on condition he make restitution of $280 and pay the costs. He was with a group of men who took part in that burglary and was the last sentenced. He had served a two-to-four-year sentence from Franklin County and a four-to-eight-month sentence in Cumberland. CECIL GULDEN PASSES AWAY

Cecil E. Gulden, 80, died Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at his home in Mt. Joy Twp., R. 1, where he had resided for the past 34 years. He had been in ill health for the past five years.

A native of Adams County and a son of the late John Frank and Leah (Lower) Gulden, he was born in Adams County and was a farmer all of his life. He also hauled milk for many years in Straban Twp. Surviving are his wife, whom he wed in 1905, the former Zora Mae Deatrick, and nine children: Mrs. Glenn Sterner, Gettysburg R. 1; Mrs. Albert Cullison, McKnightstown; Mrs. Mildred Miller, York Springs R. 2; C. Donald Gulden, Gettysburg R. 6; Mrs. Helen Doyle, Gettysburg R. 6; George W. Gulden, Orrtanna R. 2; Mrs. Frank E. Stitt, Baltimore; Mrs. Raymond L. Fair, Gettysburg R. 6, and Harold E. Gulden, Gettysburg R. 1.

Also surviving are 30 grandchildren; 21 great-grandchildren, and a brother, Edward L. Gulden, New Oxford R. 1. Funeral services Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Rev. Dr. Paul L. Reaser of officiating. Interment in Hillcrest Memorial Gardens. Friends may call Wednesday evening from 7 to 9 at the funeral home.

State Appeals Two Damage Awards

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Monday appealed the findings of boards of view on damages to two properties caused by the construction of the new Route 15 east of Gettysburg.

Attorney Oscar F. Spicer filed the appeals for the state in the damage suits of A. J. and Ella C. Larmer, Fairfield R. 2, on which the board of view on December 10 filed its report listing damages to the Freedom Twp. property at $14,000, and the report of the board of view December 9, listing damages to the property of John D. and Edna M. Eckert, Gettysburg R. 4, north of the Lincoln Highway, at $34,500.

COMMITTEES OF UPPER ADAMS SCHOOL NAMED

Committees of the Upper Adams School District School Board were named Monday evening by President Dean Asquith at a directors' meeting in the Biglerville High School.

John Pitzer was renamed chairman of the teacher-athletic committee and will serve with Dr. W. N. Sterrett and Hiram Rex. Asquith will attend the committee meetings when possible.

Paul Pitzer will continue as chairman of the transportation-property committee with Guy Deardorff, Herman Dixon and Dr. Sterrett.

Kenneth Alwine was renamed chairman of the finance-taxation committee, with Dale Eckert, acting chairman, Paul Pitzer, John Pitzer and Dr. Sterrett.

SUPERINTENDENT DONALD B. HUDSON

Donald B. Hudson told board members that Dr. Warren Quanbeck, Lutheran Seminary professor who attended a recent session of the Ecumenical Council in the Vatican, will address the second teachers' workshop January 15. He said that the new mathematics system also will be discussed at the all-day teachers' meeting.

ACTING TREASURER

The board named Dale Eckert to serve as treasurer in the absence of Kenneth Alwine, who is recovering from an heart attack in the Warner Hospital. Members also accepted the rec. (Continued On Page 3)

KISER RITES ON THURSDAY

An autopsy performed Monday evening by Dr. C. H. Johnson revealed that the death of Mrs. Carol Reather Kiser, 24-year-old wife of Joseph W. Kiser, Biglerville R. 1, was caused by a rupture of the right Fallopian tube as the result of an ectopic pregnancy, culminating in internal hemorrhage.

She was found dead in bed Monday morning by her husband, a senior at the Lutheran Seminary. She had been a patient in the Warner Hospital for a week in December.

The deceased was a graduate of Gettysburg College in 1961 and taught a special education class in the Fairfield (Continued On Page 3)

MRS. WATKINS, EX-TEACHER, DIES MONDAY

Mrs. Myrtle Estelle Watkins, 80, W. Main St., Emmitsburg, who had taught school for 20 years in Maryland and had been a school supervisor and teacher in Honduras for 19 years, died at 6:30 o'clock Monday evening in the Warner Hospital where she had been a patient for three weeks.

She was the widow of W. Ernest Watkins and was a native of Frederick County. She was a daughter of the late John E. and Martha E. Linthicum King and was a member of Trinity Methodist Church in Emmitsburg.

Mrs. Watkins was a former president of the Homemakers' Club of Emmitsburg and had resided there for the last 13 years after her retirement from teaching. Her years in Honduras were in the employ of the United Fruit Company.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Margaret Wilhide, Emmitsburg; a son, William E., Towson, Md.; six grandchildren; four great-grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Lorena Smith, Miami.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in the Trinity Methodist Church with her pastor, the Rev. Martin Case, officiating. Interment will be made in the Bethesda Church Cemetery, Brownsville, Md. Friends may call at the church from noon Thursday until the time of the services.

Scranton Requests Record Budget With No Increase In Taxes In Address Today

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Scranton proposed to the 1964 legislature today a record annual general fund budget of $1.168 billion, fatter by $59 million but without any increased taxes.

"The important thing about this budget 'without-a-tax-increase,'" Scranton informed the legislators on the opening day of their new session, "is that it is no 'stand pat' document. It signals not a fiscal year in which we will merely mark time, but a fiscal year in which we shall continue to build a better Pennsylvania."

Scranton combined his budget message with a "State of the Commonwealth" report on his first year in office and a look at the things he said must be done in 1964.

GOP NOMINEE—?

Since his last appearance before the opening of a regular session of the legislature one year ago, Scranton has emerged as one of the most talked-about

TWO EXCHANGE STUDENTS ARE LIONS' GUESTS

The two American Field Service exchange students at Gettysburg High School, Barbel Lerche from Germany and "Neko" Wieck from Brazil, made their first community appearances Monday evening before the Gettysburg Lions Club.

After each had talked about his homeland, shown pictures and answered questions from Lions Club members, the clubmen bought $35 worth of "good will shares" to help continue the foreign exchange program here.

Both of the students are living in homes of Lions Club members. Miss Lerche in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Musselman, and Wieck in the home of Senior High School Principal and Mrs. Charles E. Tressler.

PRESENTS PENNANT

As he opened his remarks to the club, Wieck presented a pennant from the Lions of his home city, Sao Leopoldo, to Mr. Musselman, president of the Gettysburg club.

Miss Lerche, who comes from Kassel, Germany, a city destroyed by World War II bombings, spoke first and showed color pictures of her homeland, including views of the German Alps, Munich, the Danube, Hesse, her home city, and Berlin and its wall.

Speaking excellent English, the young student, who hopes to become an interpreter, told of differences between the schools of Germany and the United States. Pupils go to elementary schools for four years and those who are qualified get nine years of high school, she said. School sessions are held only in the morning but (Continued On Page 3)

U. S. BANKING SYSTEM IS ROTARY TOPIC

Operation of the Federal Reserve Bank system of the United States was outlined Monday evening by Dr. Milton L. Stokes, professor of economics at Gettysburg College, to the Rotary Club at its meeting in the YWCA.

"The Federal Reserve has the task of seeing that there is enough credit available at all times, no more and no less than just enough, in order to promote the economic growth of the nation, promote stability in the economy and promote full employment."

"The U.S. has set up a totally unique central bank in its Federal Reserve system. Where other countries establish one central bank, the U.S. has 12 Federal Reserve banks, one for each of the 12 regions of the country, superimposed on top of the banking system as it existed in 1914 when the Federal Reserve system came into effect."

BANK CENTENNIAL

"The U.S., at Benjamin Franklin's insistence, charted a central bank of the U.S. in 1791. But when its charter expired in 1811 it was not renewed. In 1816 a second Bank of the U.S. was formed but in 1830 a veto by President Andrew Jackson ended that central bank. The farming, interests, frontiersmen, those in debt, were all opposed because they feared a central bank would control credit. They wanted inflation, and they were opposed to 'foreigners' having control of the money. The result (Continued On Page 2)

Gives Invocations Before Legislature

The Rev. Dr. Howard Schley Fox pastor of Trinity United Church of Christ, today delivered two prayers at Harrisburg.

He gave the invocation when the House of Representatives met at noon and then gave the invocation when the House and Senate met in joint session at 12:30 o'clock to hear the address by Governor William Scranton.

Rev. Dr. Fox was selected when Assemblyman Harry D. Ridinger was asked by the legislature to provide the minister for the invocations.

SIX - DISTRICT ADAMS SCHOOL PLAN IS URGED

The Franklin Twp. board of school directors at its January meeting Monday evening at the school at Cashtown went on record as favoring a six-district plan of reorganization of Adams County schools.

That recommendation will be forwarded to the Adams County board of school directors which must submit a county school reorganization plan to the state before July 1.

Franklin Twp. is the first board to take a stand on reorganization in the current series of consultations being held by the county superintendent and county board with school directors in all parts of the county. The Franklin Twp. board favors going to the six-district plan in 1966, latest possible date under a new school law.

VOTE RAISE TO TEACHERS

The Franklin Twp. board's action came after a discussion with County Superintendent of Schools M. Francis Coulson; his assistant, George B. Inskip, and two members of the county board, Earl B. Hartzell and Hugh C. McIlhenny.

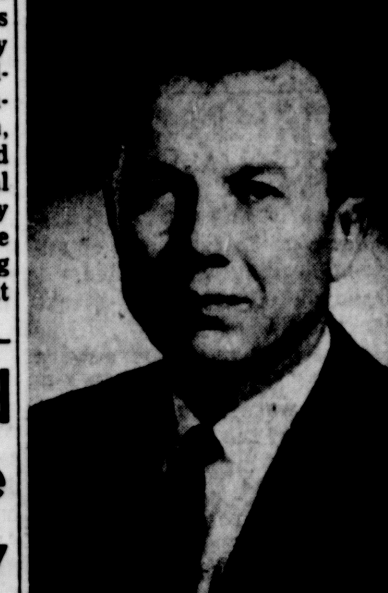

President Thomas O. Oyler presided at the meeting of the township board with all members in attendance. The board voted to give salary increases to their teachers in line with pay increases voted last month by the Gettysburg Joint School board to its teachers. The raises will bring salaries of experienced teachers in line with state-ordered increases for new teachers this year.

In Franklin Twp. the board action will give a $300 pay raise to 10 teachers and a $100 raise for (Continued On Page 3)

Philip M. Jones Named President Of Borough Council Monday Night

PRESIDENT JONES

GETTYSBURG TO CONTINUE ON FAST TIME

Gettysburg will be on daylight saving time from May until October.

That was the unmentioned effect of the resolution adopted by borough council Monday night at the engine house concerning the time of its meetings.

The resolution provided that the council will meet on the first Monday of each month, except when the first Monday falls on a holiday. Then council will meet on Tuesday.

According to the resolution, council will meet at 7:30 p.m. Eastern Standard Time in January, February, March, April, November and December, and will meet at 7 p.m. Eastern Standard Time during May, June, July, August, September and October.

$500 FOR POOL

A special committee from the Recreation Board asked council for $500 to secure drawings and specifications for a community swimming pool.

Council President Philip Jones told the council, "It is my personal feeling that we will eventually have a pool. I hope that it can be accomplished this summer."

He added that he believes a pool will pay for itself "but it can't pay for itself in a year, so it will require a lot of borough backing."

He urged that $500 be appropriated out of the recreation budget to pay for the drawings, etc. The Moesman Construction Co., Harrisburg, had submitted a proposal to do the work required for $500, and so council approved that expenditure.

LeRoy Winebrenner asked permission to dump snow on the parking lots at the Recreation Field. Councilman Richard Smith opposed.

He said when the snow melted the water would run into the Tiber and the Tiber was being readied for more concrete. He (Continued On Page 2)

GIVE PROGRAM FOR CONCERT

The internationally famous team of pianists, Arthur Gold and Robert Fildale, will include the works of Bach, Mozart, Poulenc and Hilhaud in their program this evening in Christ Chapel, where they will present the second in a series of three concerts sponsored by the Gettysburg Concert Association.

The Mozart composition, "Sonata in C Major," is the fifth of five sonatas written by the composer for four hands at one piano and includes "Allegretto," "Andante," and "Allegretto."

Francis Poullenc's two-piano sonata, which he wrote in 1953, and his Elegy in 1959 both were written for Gold and Fildale. The artists will announce their selections.

Gold and Fildale will present Milhaud's "Scaramouche Suite" during the second half of the program.

The Bach composition will be "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring," which was arranged for two pianos by the English pianist, Dame Myra Hess.

The concert will be presented at 6:30 o'clock.

DELAY TC MEETING

The meeting of the Gettysburg Travel Council, originally set for this evening, will be held next Tuesday evening at the Hotel Gettysburg. There will be a dinner at 6:30 o'clock and the business meeting will follow at 7:30 p.m.

Second Ward Councilman Philip M. Jones, W. Broadway, was elected president of the Gettysburg Borough Council for a two-year term at its reorganization meeting Monday evening at the engine house, E. Middle St.

A long-time member of the council, Jones, who had served as head of the light committee for the last two years, succeeds J. Glenn Guise, who retired from council Monday night. Guise presided at the opening of the session, the last for the old council, at which the only business was the reading of minutes of the December meeting. When they were approved, President Guise had performed his last official act and he and the other two retiring councilmen, Mrs. Rebecca Schwenk and Attorney John D. Thrush, retired.

Guise turned the meeting over to Mayor William G. Weaver who presided for the swearing in of the three new councilmen, Kenneth Hull, James Strickhouser and William Lentz, who succeed the three retiring councilmen, and the three councilmen who began new four-year terms Monday night, Richard Smith, Robert McCoy and George W. Naugle. JONES APPLAUDED

After the men had taken the oath of office they were seated at the council table and the organization of the new council began.

Jones, a furniture manufacturer, was elected unanimously and when he took over the gavel later was greeted with applause by the other eight members of council.

George Naugle, a first ward councilman, was elected vice president of the council. Older members of council noted that a vice president had never been named before. Borough solicitor Attorney Donald G. Oyler said he had recommended election of a vice president, holding that "it seems a good idea and it may be required." Previously if a council president could not be present he named one of the other councilmen to preside at the meeting.

NAMES COMMITTEES

Mrs. Anna Dracha was re-named secretary and Charles E. Kuhn treasurer and building official.

CLASSES FOR ADULTS WILL BEGIN MONDAY

The second semester of classes in the adult evening education school will begin at the Gettysburg High School building next Monday evening with nearly a score of courses to be offered if enrollment warrants them.

Jack R. Corbin, director of the adult education program at the school, said the first semester sessions ended December 19 with 75 per cent of the 135 pupils enrolled completing their courses. More than 60 per cent of the total enrolled received certificates of achievement for the work they completed, Mr. Corbin said.

The average first semester enrollment has been about 120 in the past.

REGISTER MONDAY

A number of courses which were given in the first semester will be continued into the second semester, Mr. Corbin. They will include oil painting with the first class meeting Thursday, January 16; drafting, first class January 15; Spanish, first class January 16; sewing, first class January 16; shorthand, first class January 13; typewriting, first class January 13.

Registration will be conducted in the office of the principal in the senior high school building from 7 to 9 p.m. Monday. The minimum enrollment quota for a class is 12.

These additional courses will be offered beginning Thursday, January 16: Adams County history which will hold 16 sessions and will cover the period from 1730 to 1865 with Jacob M. Sheads as the teacher; conversational French, electricity and electronics and woodworking.

HELP ON LANGUAGES

A music workshop is to begin its sessions January 15. Mr. Corbin said that recent interest has been shown in courses (Continued On Page 3)

OK CFA FUNDS ON SEWER JOB

The Community Facilities Administration in Washington, D. C., announced Monday afternoon that an advance of $3,340 has been approved for the McSherrystown borough to use in preliminary planning of a sewer facility addition there.

The announcement was reported to The Gettysburg Times by the office of U. S. Senator Joseph S. Clark.

Attorney Ronald Hagarman, solicitor for the McSherrystown borough council which has launched the sewer improvement program, said the borough is also applying for federal public works funds to help finance the project expected to cost over $195,000.

Surveys already have been started and preliminary plans are expected to be ready next month, Mr. Hagarman said. The proposed revamping of the present sewage disposal plant will increase its capacity by about 200 per cent, he added.

The present plant was designed to handle a capacity of 2,200 population. Now it is being overtaxed by serving about 3,200 persons in the area. Relief lines also are a part of the proposed project.

MOUNT CLASSES ARE RESUMED

Classes resumed at Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, Monday following the Christmas holidays. According to the dean of studies, Rev. Carl J. Fives, registration for the spring semester will be held in the Cogan Union January 13-16 between the hours of 9:30-11:30 a.m. and 1:30-4:30 p.m. The spring semester officially begins on February 3 following the semester examination period which begins on January 21.

A new system of registration will be utilized for the forthcoming spring term in anticipation of the conversion of the present records system to one utilizing an IBM computer system. Rev. F. Fives said that it is hoped that such a conversion will be completed by the fall registration. At the present time college officials including the dean of studies, the registrar and the alumni secretary have been inspecting the computer facilities of other institutions.

LEGION PLANS SHRIMP FEED

Plans for a stag shrimp feed January 31 at the American Legion home were outlined Monday evening by the membership committee of the Albert J. Lentz Post, at a meeting of the post in the home Monday evening.

Tickets for the feed will be available at $1 at the home and a 1964 membership card will be required to be admitted. A special "Ladies' Night" shrimp feed will be held at a later date. It was announced that the 22nd District meeting will be held at the Legion home here Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Death of seven Legionnaires during 1963 was reported. Five new members were enrolled: Joseph J. Mowery Sr., Gettysburg R. 2; James L. O'Connor Jr., Gettysburg R. 5; Wade Shetter, Lake Arrowhead, Calif.; James Elbert Basemore Jr., and Maude Shriver Basemore, Aboskie, N. C.

Seek To Recover Aid To Children

The commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Public Welfare, Monday brought an assumpt action in Adams County court, asking judgments against six children of Kathleen B. Milhimes, Hanover R. 1, based on their remaining interest in real estate in Union Twp. The amounts of the judgments asked were based on sums expended for them in Aid to Dependent Children provided by the state Public Welfare Department. The sums listed against the children, all of whom reside with the mother, are: Howard E., $351.13; Daniel L., $390.28; Sally A., $390.28; Timmy A., and Tammy, each $390.28, and Charles William, $318.53.

BUDGET NEXT MONTH

Councilman John Welshonice reported that the finance committee will have the proposed budget for council consideration at the February meeting and urged all committee chairmen to submit the budgets for their committees to him as quickly as possible. He said the town spent $177,565.67 in 1963, or about $15,000 under the budget.

Winebrenner reported that the state has agreed to build W. Lincoln Ave. and College Ave. this year, and said, "I think we should get after them to rebuild Baltimore St. this year."

President Jones asked the highways committee to rush studies of "what we want to do and what we want the state to do in street work during the coming year so we can get on this as quickly as possible."

Family Destitute After Trailer Fire

Damage estimated at $4,500, partially covered by insurance, was done by fire to the house-trailer of Glenn Flohr, a Knoose Foods worker, early Sunday morning near Zora.

Awakened by the barks of their pet dog, Flohr carried his two-year-old son and five-month-old daughter and led his wife to safety wearing only nightclothes.

Harry McClain, Blue Ridge Summit fire chief, said the fire started near a heater. The family has been left destitute and homeless by the blaze.

Fairfield and Fountindale firemen also responded to the alarm.

STOCKS UNEVEN

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market pursued an uneven course early this afternoon after four straight sessions of advance. Trading was active. Changes of most key stocks were small.

Most steels and motors were narrowly higher on balance. Tobaccos were lower, apparently in view of the government report on smoking and health due Saturday.

Aluminums rose in a partial follow-through on the recent strength of nonferrous metals, while coppers and others in the group turned irregular.

CITES AIMS OF KIWANIS CLUB

A review of the club accomplishments during the past year and plans for increased service in 1964 were given by Clyde Markle, newly-elected president of the Kiwanis Club at a meeting Monday evening at the Lamp Post Tea Room.

Markle reviewed the objectives of Kiwanis International and indicated the goals the local club should pursue, personal services to the needy, support of youth activities and promotion of plans for community betterment. He completed naming committees for 1964 and explained the work of the committee chairmen.

Plans were made for the forthcoming installation of officers and for the Wally Faber hunting and fishing show at Gettysburg High School on January 29.

Charles Pentz, current club president, presided at the regular meeting as well as at the meeting of the board of directors.

COMMITTEES OF

(Continued From Page 1) commendation of John Pitzer, teacher committee, to permit William Williams to attend a football clinic in Washington, D. C. February 1-2, and a three day athletic clinic in March in Atlantic City, N. J., for Jack Emanuel.

The board agreed to meet at 7:30 o'clock February 3 to discuss the county school reorganization program prior to meeting at 8:30 with superintendents and representatives of the county board.

In response to a request from Biglerville Fire Company for use of the baseball field July 14-18 for the annual carnival, the board recommended that Little League games scheduled during the period should be rescheduled to permit the firemen to use the grounds.

EVALUATION PROGRAM

Hudson told the board that the Upper Adams system has been asked to participate in an elementary school evaluation program conducted by the department of education in Harrisburg. He said that, "being asked to participate in this program is a great honor and I feel a great help to our teachers and principals in that they are called upon to evaluate their own programs and accomplishments in the process of establishing standards of evaluating elementary schools in the central district."

Hudson also reported that Samuel Ehlman, science teacher, has been nominated by the Pennsylvania Science Teachers Association to receive a special award for superiority as science teacher.

Business Manager David Houck presented bills totaling $54,100 for payment and reported a cash balance of $290,554.05 as of December 31; $271,852.58 in the general fund and $8,701.47 in the amortization account. He reported that cafeteria income for 15 days in December was $6,121.50, expenses were $7,099.93. The average daily number of meals served was 1,263.

OTHER REPORTS

Houck also reported that gate receipts and program sales for the current football season were $5,246 and that expenses so far have reached nearly $9,000. He said that the school board contributed $5,050.30. He added that the past season "was one of the best income years we've ever had."

A report of the school nurse, Mrs. Alice Heller, showed that 168 pupils had received first aid for illness or injury, 10 of whom were referred to their family physicians. She reported two cases

The court heard argument by Attorneys Edward B. Bulleit and Donald G. Oyler on the preliminary objections of John D. Settle and Robert H. Shull to being included as defendants in the equity suit brought by Kenneth E. and Norman A. Hess, John L. Cauffman, Luther M. and Emma J. Deaner, Dean E. and Beatrice G. Carey and J. Calvin and Grace M. Shank, all property owners in Seven Stars, against Hercules Alcor Chemical Co., and Settle and Shull.

FIRST OF KIND

Settle and Shull are included as defendants because they are the owners of the plant in Seven Stars used by the Hercules Alcor company. Settle and Shull argued through Attorney Bulleit that they could have no knowledge when they gave a five-year lease to the company that its operation would prove offensive to the area and thus should not be party to the case. Both attorneys in their arguments said that they had been unable to find any other case in Pennsylvania exactly like the one in which they were included.

In connection with the argument it was revealed in the briefs that on October 14 at the request of Hercules Alcor the case was removed from Adams County court to the U. S. Middle District Court in Harrisburg. On October 26 and 28 attorneys for the Seven Stars residents and the attorneys for Settle and Shull pleaded before the Middle District Court that the case should be returned to the jurisdiction of Adams County. On December Judge Frederick V. Folmer in U. S. District Court for the Middle District of Pennsylvania handed down an order returning the equity action to Adams County court.

AUDITOR NAMED

Glenn Black, Gettysburg R. 1, was appointed by the court as auditor for Mt. Joy Twp. to replace Eugene Clapsaddle. The appointment was made on a petition by Clarence H. Myers, G.

of pink eye and one each of impetigo, conjunctivitis and chicken pox. She recorded 21 accidents during the month, 13 of which were reported to school authorities. She made seven home visits, treated 60 colds, 18 upset stomachs, 10 sore throats, 26 cases of virus and four cases of croup.

BONNEAUVILLE MAYOR NAMED

Richard Neiderer, Bonneauville, was elected president of the Bonneauville borough council Monday evening at a reorganization meeting in the fire hall. Mayor Joseph W. Clabaugh was in charge of the meeting and installed new councilmen Neiderer, Burnell Jago and Eugene Long. A fourth councilman, elected in November, Richard Weaver, was not present and will be sworn in later.

Council accepted the resignation of Councilwoman M. Jean Miller, who has served for two years, and appointed Raymond Small to serve the remaining two years of her term.

Mrs. Marcia L. Staub was re-elected secretary and was named to serve also as treasurer after council voted to combine the two positions. The treasurer's bond was re-set at $10,000.

Atty. Eugene Hartman was re-elected borough solicitor and the Littlestown National Bank was retained as depository.

The fourth Tuesday of the month was set for regular meetings.

Richard Reeve, Paul Straley, Irvin S. Conover and Charles C. Little.

St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, Hanover, will receive $1,000 from the will of Maurice N. Gardner, late of Menallen Twp., according to the account of Naomi H. Gardner, executrix of the estate. The account listed $44,169.82 for distribution. The will provided for $1,000 for the Hanover church and the remainder goes to Mr. Gardner's widow, Naomi H. Gardner. The will provides for a number of bequests if any of the estate remains after Mrs. Gardner's death, including $2,000 to Ground Oak Church.

Other accounts approved and amounts for distribution included: account of Harry C. Wildasin, executor of the will of John W. Myers late of Union Twp., $9,933.71; Calvin R. Cline, administrator of the estate of Tressie N. Crum, late of Menallen Twp., $5,235.62; Gettysburg National Bank, executor of the will of George D. McDannell, late of Franklin Twp., $7,103.16. The McDannell will provides $100 for St. Ignace Loyola Catholic Church, Buchanan Valley, and divides the remainder among two children and the children of a deceased daughter.

EXPLAINS STAND

Richard E. Sites, Gettysburg R. 3, was given a suspended sentence on a charge of illegal use of a motor vehicle on condition he pay the costs.

A number of cases were continued.

County Surveyor LeRoy H. Winebrenner, in his testimony Monday in the hearing by which the county asked permission to sell land to Dr. J. C. Donley from the old county home, opposed the sale of land as contemplated, but made it clear he did not oppose sale of land to Dr. Donley to permit him to "square off" his present holdings along E. Broadway and the Harrisburg Rd. Winebrenner held that the section to be sold should be 25 feet shorter on the north than listed in the proposed plot to be sold, in order to permit another street to be constructed parallel to and north of E. Broadway. If the street would be placed the county could sell additional lots, he noted, and thus obtain more than the $7,500 price of the present sale.

Buys Reindollar Hardware Store

Henry I. Reindollar Jr. has purchased the Reindollar Hardware Co., Taneytown, which has been operated by the Reindollar family for three generations.

The firm was founded by his grandfather, Milton H. Reindollar, in 1898 and was located in the building now occupied by Mrs. Ella Reichard's restaurant. Following the death in 1909, the firm was operated by his children, Henry Harry Reindollar, W. Wallace Reindollar and Miss Mary Reindollar, who continued in the same location until 1932 when they moved to the present location in the center of town.

The Reindollar family has steadily maintained a modern and efficient operation, and through their stockholder association with American Hardware Supply Co., Butler, Pa., have been able to meet hardware competition in the area successfully.

WILL PROVIDE

Lloyd C. Keefeauver was elected to a new term of five years since his present term expires January 31. After some discussion council agreed to continue the practice adopted by the prior council of holding over for one month all requests for appointments to various boards.

STUDY FUNDS REQUEST

Councilman John Welshonce proposed plans to present to each councilman at each month's meeting a list of the bills. At present only the finance committee sees all of the bills presented council. In order to have time to make up the listings of bills, the council voted that it will consider at its meeting each month only those bills submitted by the 25th of the preceding month.

A request was received from Gettysburg Travel Council asking a portion of the amusement tax receipts spent for promotion of the community. The matter was turned over to the finance committee for study of the legal aspects.

Treasurer Charles Kuhn was authorized to provide the signature for the transfer of money from the special meter fund to the general fund; the general fund checking account, in line with the tradition of rotating it among the two banks of the town, was transferred from the Adams County National to the Gettysburg National; resolutions were adopted appointing the Adams County National and Gettysburg National as depositories for various funds and the banks were reported in process of depositing, as required, funds with the Federal Reserve totaling 120 per cent of the borough's deposits.

SALARIES UNCHANGED

The bond of the treasurer was set at $40,000 and the borough building inspector at $1,000 with the town to pay the premiums of the bonds.

The salaries of various officials were adopted all the same as last year: Treasurer, $1,800; secretary, $3,000; solicitor, $1,200; borough engineer, $4,600; chief of police, $4,600; sergeant of police $4,300; policeman, $3,900; special policeman, $1.40 an hour; highways foreman, $4,150; highways laborer, $1.40 per hour; highways truck operator, $1.50 an hour; highway heavy equipment operator, $1.60 an hour; janitor, $3,900.

There was some discussion on whether the building official should be placed on salary. Continued for the time being was the schedule by which the build-on Saturdays also. She said she had studied English for six years of the 11 she has been in school and will need two more years to complete high school work. She compared the last years of high school there to beginning college work here.

RED PRESSURE UNWELCOME
Wieck spoke of his homeland and showed pictures, chiefly of Brazil, his nation's new capital city.

Wieck, whose father is a high school principal, said that Communists are exerting pressure on Brazil, especially on the students and the powerful labor unions. "But our people don't want communism," he asserted.

He said there are few public schools in Brazil and private schools are costly. Forty-five per cent of the people are illiterate, he said. He told of recent beginnings of industry and progress in building schools in Brazil and expressed amazement that religion is not taught in schools here as it is in both public and private schools in his country. Ninety-two per cent of the Brazilians are Catholic and six per cent Protestant, he added.

HEAR MISS RAMER

He concluded by speaking of the American Field Service program and its goals of building international good will and understanding.

Miss N. Louise Ramer, of the Gettysburg High School AFS Committee, told the Lions the local students are now available for talks before groups. She said that more than 2,500 are in America and 700 U.S. students have gone abroad under the AFS program. She said Gettysburg is one of 42 towns in the U.S. sponsoring two foreign students. She also told of the current fund-raising campaign to continue the program here with GHS students pledging $2,325 toward this year's fund.

PLAN ANNIVERSARY

President Sterling Musselman presided at the meeting at the Varsity Diner and presented banners to three members of the club, Carl S. Menchey, Timothy Farrel and Kenneth G. Reinhart Jr., for bringing in new members during a recent contest month.

A meeting of the club's board of directors followed the meeting when plans were advanced for celebration of the club's 40th anniversary January 27 with a ladies' night dinner.

INSTALLATION SUNDAY

The Rev. Jack R. Hoffman, Etters, a graduate of the Lutheran Seminary in 1961, will be installed as assistant pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, Lancaster, next Sunday. Rev. Hugo Schroeder Jr., a graduate of the college and seminary, will be installed at the same time as director of evangelism. The pastor of the church is the Rev. Dr. Wallace E. Fisher, also a graduate of the college and seminary, and formerly pastor of Christ Lutheran Church here.

School System for the last three years. She was a member of the Biglerville Garden Club, the Upper Adams Homemakers, the National Education Association, the Adams County Association for Retarded Children, and the Ascension Evangelical Lutheran Church of Towson. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Reather, Baltimore, who survive in addition to her husband and a brother, William Reather, Baltimore.

Funeral services will be held Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the Church of the Abiding Presence at the Seminary with the president of the Seminary, Dr. Donald R. Heiges, officiating. Burial will be made in Parkwood Cemetery, Baltimore, at 3 p.m. The Rev. Dr. Frank Fife will conduct the services there.

Friends may call at the Peters Funeral Home, Carlisle St., Wednesday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

The family has asked that flowers be omitted. Contributions may be made instead to the Seminary Memorial Fund, which has been established by the Student Association of the Seminary.

DAD SURRENDERS SON

Harold D. Trivitt, 18, Gettysburg R. 5, was turned over to the sheriff for admission to jail by his father Monday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock. Trivitt had failed to appear in court on a drag racing charge and a process for his arrest was handed down by the court. The sheriff was unable to locate the youth and told Trivitt's father of the process. The father then turned the youth in.

DEPUTY CORONERS

Adams County Coroner Dr. C. G. Crist today announced the appointment of the following deputy coroners: Dr. Harrison Harbach, Dr. Roy Gifford and Dr. Robert Lefever.

Hartzell, McCoy; utility, Hull, Lentz, Naugle; sewer, Lentz, Hull, Smith; ordinance, Naugle, Strickhouser, McCoy; health, Strickhouser, Lentz, Welshonce.

Mayor Weaver in his message before installing Jones said "With Mahlon P. Hartzell, Philip M. Jones and John Welshonce, the 'left-over,' we have a solid foundation on which to establish the 1964-1965 council. Then we add more stability with the re-elected councilmen, Naugle, McCoy and Smith. Then finally we have a group of well selected new councilmen in Hull, Lentz and Strickhouser. I feel that Gettysburg has a strong and well-rounded group of public spirited men to carry out the functions of local government."

"We who have been connected with council for varying lengths of time will miss Glenn Guise, Rebecca Schwenk and Jack Thrush. Glenn made an excellent president; Becky was a hard working committee worker and Jack was a very conscientious councilman and stood up for his own convictions."

ASK FOR OFFICES

Weaver then outlined the relation of mayor to council.

The mayor asked council to add at least one extra man to the police force, noting that Thomas Carr has been used so often as a policeman that "to call him an extra is to stretch the emergency requirement for the hiring of part-time men too far." He added that he recommends two men be named "because we can use them to good advantage." He said that "the cost would be very little above that of the present system" of hiring extra part-time policemen.

He recommended that if the force is increased a corporal be named, and urged a study of the pay scale of Gettysburg police in comparison "with that of nearby towns of comparable size."

Weaver urged council to "follow up the good hard work of Mahlon Hartzell 'in setting up plans for enlargement of the engine house' with or without federal aid."

He thanked Ray Hoffman for permitting the present 39-year-old aerial ladder truck to be stored in the Victor Products plant.

He also expressed his thanks and appreciation to other councilmen who served during his administration.

GRANTED DIVORCE

Kathleen Landsman, Red Lion, has been granted a divorce in York from George E. Landsman, East Berlin.

PRAYER WEEK

Do I thirst and hunger for something which this world cannot fulfill? The soul ponders on the 'why' of life. The capacity for soul nourishment is just as real as the capacity for body nourishment. Man is made to have fellowship with God and the final satisfaction comes only from Him."

He explained that a sense of guilt may indicate "our thirst for God and it is often the Lord's way to help people get back on the right track." He said: "You may ignore this guilt or analyze it but the only way to receive God is to confess it. Why do we 'play around' and forget the greater ministry? So many thirst for God and our high calling is to enlist others. God is constantly approaching us and the highest service we can render in this world is to lead others into fellowship with Him."

The Rev. Donald Treese, pastor, conducted the service and led the prayers. The choir of the church led the music with Harold L. Ecker at the organ. George P. Heffran, choir director, sang a solo, "The Lord Is My Light" by McDonald.

Approximately 60 persons attended.

This evening the service will be held in the Prince of Peace Episcopal Church at 7:30 with the Rev. Harold Myers, pastor of the Foursquare Gospel Church, preaching on "The Man With the Keys" from Revelations. Wednesday evening the service will be at the Foursquare Gospel Church, W. Middle St., with the Rev. Dr. Howard Schley Fox preaching on "Imperatives for Salvation."

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times
FIFTY YEARS AGO

Gettysburg gave its noisiest greeting for many years as 1914 made its appearance Wednesday and for fifteen minutes the town let loose every known instrument of noise on which it could lay its hands. Factory, power plant and locomotive whistles blew blast after blast, church bells were rung, there was shooting in every portion of the town, youngsters with various noisemaking devices traveled up and down the streets, there was shouting and singing, so that the new year received an uproarious welcome from the county seat. The celebration was entirely spontaneous, no arrangement having been made for any special demonstration. Watch night services were held in the Presbyterian church, lasting until midnight. The year which just closed will go down in history, so far as Gettysburg is concerned, second only to 1863. The celebration here in July centered the eyes of the entire civilized world on this little town and for generations to come the remarkable anniversary will be related. That it will never be duplicated is undisputed and Gettysburg's celebration last July makes 1913 unique. The incoming year promises little in the line of the unusual for Gettysburg but it will give more opportunities for continued growth and development along sane business avenues.

Commission Has Large Balance: Colonel Lewis E. Beidler, secretary of the Gettysburg Fiftieth Anniversary Commission, this week closed the office of the commission at Harrisburg and turned a 300-page report of the great reunion of Northern and Southern soldiers held at Gettysburg last July to Governor Tenor. The report shows that the celebration was held within the appropriation and that about $37,000 provided by the Legislature was not touched. In all the Legislature gave $450,000. Of the $415,000 drawn upon by the commission there is still a balance of several thousand dollars. The exact amount of the balance will not be known until the War Department finally settles with the State. The Government appropriated $150,000 for the celebration. There were 53,000 veterans cared for in the camp.

Employees Entertained: The officers and employees of the Gettysburg Department store were delightfully entertained at dinner last evening at the Hotel Gettysburg, it being the occasion of the sixth annual dinner given to the employees by the members of this firm. Present were: H. N. Gitt, president; J. F. Hartman, vice president and manager; J. L. Butt, treasurer; Miss Lily Dougherty, secretary, and J. I. Burgoon, directors of the corporation. Mrs. J. F. Hartman, Mrs. J. L. Butt, Mrs. J. I. Burgoon, Mrs. E. A. Weaver, Gettysburg; E. G. Eckert, Melvin Shaffer and Cloyd Shaffer, Hanover; Miss Katie Raffensperger, Miss Genevieve Ramer, Miss Eileen Power, Miss Mary Reincke, John Walter, Calvin Shank, Gervus Hoffnagle, William Ogden, Charles Troxell, Al Stevens and C. Butt.

Big House: John Raymond entertained about 1,100 people of Walter's Theatre Thursday evening in celebration of his first night as manager of the playhouse. The fact that no admission was to be charged was advertised only through the Times.

Leaving For Their Schools: A general exodus of the young people who have been spending their holiday vacations in Gettysburg started on Sunday. Gettysburg is represented at a

Today's Talk

WHEN IS ONE RICH?
When I think of a person of wealth I look upon his material gains or accumulations. The word "rich" has a different meaning to me. I do not connect the material with it, but rather the spiritual.

We all meet people who are rich in mind, rich in heart, or rich in spirit. We speak of rich experiences, and of being rich in friends. So that anyone can be rich by feeling rich! But this feeling has to be earned, just like wealth has to be earned, if it is to be appreciated.

One is especially rich when he has given something away that has enriched someone else. And he is rich when he has learned to gather in beauty wherever found, or has learned that valuable lesson of treasuring memories, so that he may, at will, walk down "Memory Lane."

A person who has earned and banked money goes to his bank from time to time to draw out what is needed. Thus it is with those who have banked kindness in other lives, or who have ideas, or never-dying thoughts, in books. Not only are these people privileged to draw out their own accumulation, but they leave great riches for those of all time from which to draw.

Take the Bible, Shakespeare, Dickens, Hugo, and thousands of other literary achievements, as examples where men and women have created real riches for those who will but dip into them and be refreshed, and inspired.

One of the richest men I have ever known had nothing but himself to give away, but he gave lavishly of all that he was, for he was very rich in mind, heart and spirit. He was loved by everyone. He was alone in the world, and lived in one small room, but I never met him that he didn't have a smile upon his face. He radiated cheer and his mind was a storehouse of rare knowledge.

I don't see why any of us should worry about material possessions, or about "keeping up with the Joneses" when we can become so rich in our own right by accumulating each day of our lives dispensing with it in the same way!

Tomorrow's subject: "Incentive."

Just Folks

THE KINDLY FATHER
He was a kindly father who granted every plea,
He gave his boy the toy he asked, wherever it might be.
He could not bear to see a tear come to the youngster's eye,
Because he loved the youngster so he never let him cry.

He shielded him from every hurt,
He sheltered him from pain;
He drove the little lad to school and drove him home again
And when his sums were difficult and troublesome to do,
To save his boy from worrying,
The father work them through.

He planned the little fellow's day, and as the years went by
He carried every care for him until he came to die.
And, oh! that son was helpless then, unused to toil or strife,
He'd neither strength nor wit with which to face the tasks of life.

Perhaps the Father of us all Who hears our every plea
Permits our burdens to remain that stranger we may be.
And though at times He pities us, 'twere better in the end
That we should learn to stand alone and on ourselves depend.

TODAY In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Today is Tuesday, Jan. 7, the 7th day of 1964. There are 359 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1929, the U.S. Army airplane "Question Mark" landed at Los Angeles after setting an endurance record of 150 hours and 40 minutes aloft. The pilots were Maj. Carl Spaatz and Capt. Ira Eaker, each of whom later became generals and served with distinction in World War II.

On this date: In 1789, George Washington was unanimously chosen president in the first national election in the United States and John Adams was named the first vice president.

In 1861, the convention of the seven seceding Southern states was held at Jackson, Miss., where the first flag of the Confederacy was unfurled.

In 1927, long distance radio telephone service was opened between New York and London.

In 1938, Joseph P. Kennedy was appointed U.S. ambassador to England.

In 1955, Marian Anderson made her debut at the Metropolitan Opera in New York—the first Negro to do so.

Ten years ago—President Eisenhower delivered his second State of the Union message in which he asked the 83rd Congress to moderate but sustain the foreign and welfare policies of the Roosevelt New Deal.

Five years ago—The U.S., Britain and other powers recognized Cuba's new regime after that government gave assurances it would honor its obligations.

One year ago—In a partial shift of policy the United States agreed to lend Brazil 30 million dollars to provide that South American nation with emergency aid.

SUKARNO IS SEEKING AID IN PHILIPPINES

MANILA, the Philippines (AP)—Indonesia's President Sukarno arrived in Manila today seeking Philippine support for his campaign against Malaysia.

Sukarno's five-day visit got off to a tardy start. There was an unexplained delay in his flight, and Philippine President Diosdado Macapagal waited nearly three hours at Manila International Airport.

Indonesian Foreign Minister Subandrio blamed the delay on security precautions. He said Sukarno's jet made a stop in central Java, but he offered no explanation.

DEATH THREAT

The Manila Chronicle reported earlier it had received a telephoned death threat against Sukarno. The call resulted in tightened security at the airport.

While Sukarno has vowed to smash Malaysia, his foreign minister told newsmen the two presidents will try "to find some way out of this impasse."

Although the Philippines refuses to recognize the British-sponsored federation because of its claim on the Malaysian state of Sabah, Macapagal has been trying to steer a middle course between Malaysia and Indonesia in hopes of mediating between them.

Camp Hill Entertains Warriors In Big Game; Cannors At Big Spring

Last year Gettysburg High School's basketball squad won its first six straight games before bowing to Camp Hill 47-39 on the local floor.

Tonight the Warriors, again possessing an unbeaten string of six in a row, hope to avenge that loss against the Lions at Camp Hill in an important Blue Mountain League game.

All BML teams will resume league play this evening after a long holiday recess. The Gettysburg-Camp Hill tilt looms as one of the most important. Coach Merrill Eckhart's outfit, 5-0 in the league, is the lone unbeaten team in the circuit and consequently holds first place in the first half race.

Camp Hill, Biglerville and East Pennsboro, are in a three-way tie for second place with 4-1 records and all are very much in the title picture.

Coach Dan Bushman's Cannors will also face a severe test against Big Spring at Newville. Big Spring, defending league titlist, is 3-2 in the circuit.

In other games tonight East Pennsboro plays at Shippensburg, Boiling Springs at Susquehanna, and Newport at Northern.

A-F CONTESTS

The top game in the Adams-Franklin League this evening will be played at York Springs where Bermudian hosts Greencastle.

Bermudian leads the Adams Division with its 2-0 mark while Greencastle, defending league champion, paces the Franklin Division with a 4-0 record.

Completing the A-F schedule are the following games; New Oxford (2-1) at Buchanan (2-0); Littlestown (1-2) at St. Thomas (0-2); and Fairfield (0-3) at Fannett-Metal (0-3).

Delone Catholic, 4-3 in non-league games, opens its Central Pennsylvania Catholic League campaign this evening at Lancaster Catholic. Last Friday Lancaster bowed to undefeated York Catholic 70-34 in the only league game played to date.

MOUNT BUSY

Mt. St. Mary's College (6-3) opens a busy week this evening against Western Maryland at Westminster. The Mountaineers and Green Terrors are each 3-1 in the Northern League of the Mason-Dixon Conference, trailing Catholic University 4-1.

Following tonight's game the Mount hosts Shepherd on Wednesday, Old Dominion on Friday and Loyola on Saturday on the Mountaineers' floor.

MORE ARCHERS ARE EXPECTED

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Pennsylvania Game Commission says it expects more bow-and-arrow hunters to take the field later in the week if weather conditions improve.

The state archery deer season opened for the third time in three months Monday, but the turnout was disappointing. Rain in virtually all parts of the state, along with crusted snow, kept most hunters indoors, a commission spokesman said.

None of the commission's six regional divisions reported kills on opening day. The current season ends Saturday.

This week is the second extension of the regular archery season which had been scheduled Oct. 7-31, but was shortened because of the drought. The commission authorized a special four-day season Dec. 18-21, but bitter cold temperatures and deep snow resulted in holding the kill down to seven.

Don't race back from vacation, a sustan fades quickly in a hospital.

Harney Wins L.A. Open and $7,500 Prize

By BOB MYERS

Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Golfers Paul Harney, who thought he'd never win another tournament until he captured the $50,000 Los Angeles Open, is a fellow who thinks tournament golf is for the birds — and he doesn't mean golf birds.

Harney headed for his adopted home at Sunset Oaks near Sacramento, Calif., Tuesday, richer by $7,500 for his biggest victory after nine years on the tournament circuit.

The 34-year-old product of Worcester, Mass. shot an even par 71 for a 72-hole total of 280, four strokes under par for the distance, leaving behind the celebrated Arnold Palmer, U.S. Open champion Julius Boros and a few others who kept yipping at his heels but could never quite catch him in the final round.

PALMER HAD 70

Bobby Nichols was second, with a 71 for 281. Palmer, who could never get any closer than two shots of the front runner Monday afternoon, finished in a four-way tie for third at 282.

Palmer had a 70, his third and his lowest score of the tournament. Tied with Palmer were Bob Goalby, 67; Don Finsterwald, 78; and Al Gelberger, 70. Dave Marr, with a 68, and Tommy Jacobs, 70, finished with 283, while Boros rallied with a 68 and a tie at 285.

LONG SLIDE TO LOOP CELLAR FOR KENTUCKY

By HAL BOCK

It's a long slide from the No. 1 college basketball ranking in the country to the bottom of the Southeastern Conference but Adolph Rupp's Kentucky Wildcats have completed the trip in less than a week.

Kentucky led the country in last week's Associated Press poll. Then the Wildcats ran into their first conference foe, Georgia Tech. The Engineers demolished the Wildcats and the loss dropped Kentucky to No. 2 in this week's poll. Monday night it was Vanderbilt and today the Wildcats find themselves peaking out of the conference basement with an 0-2 record.

John Ed Miller was the star for seventh-ranked Vanderbilt in an 85-83 thriller. His last second jump field goal won it. Roger Schurig led Vandy with 22 and Miller added 18. Terry Gibson's 19 topped the losers.

The game had been billed as a battle of SEC titans but instead it was a struggle to escape the conference cellar. Vanderbilt's opening league loss to Tennessee had left it tied with Kentucky in the basement but now the Wildcats are all alone. Well, almost alone. Kentucky does have some company. Tulane shares last place after dropping its 11th straight game, 87-83 to Georgia. Chances are Kentucky will break its cellar lease before its co-tenant does.

In other college conference play another pre-season favorite ran into trouble. Kansas State, a Big Eight power, ran up a 14-point bulge on Colorado with less than 12 minutes to play, then suddenly lost the range and eventually the game, 60-59. Utah State handed Utah its second loss in thirteen starts, 84-72 in a nonconference clash.

There were plenty of points in the Xavier of Ohio-Detroit game with Xavier winning 121-113.

South Carolina shot 60 per cent from the field and handed Maryland its first Atlantic Coast Conference setback 73-69. Texas Western grabbed a 77-72 decision over Arizona State.

In other major games, Northwestern downed Indiana 79-65, Michigan State clouted Wisconsin 106-90, Nebraska dumped Iowa State 55-52, Oklahoma State outscored Kansas 64-48, Missouri stopped Oklahoma 84-74, Furman beat Wake Forest 66-58, George Washington whipped Virginia Tech 96-89. The Citadel topped William and Mary 63-60, Mississippi slipped by Auburn 59-58, Mississippi State downed Alabama 69-56, Louisiana State whacked Florida 87-65 and Arizona knocked off Seattle 59-55.

ESTIMATES OF PA. INCOME IN NEW BUDGET

HARRISBURG (AP)—Here is the estimate of where money will come from in the 1964-65 budget presented today by Gov. Scranton:

Hawks' Center Is Top NHL Scorer

MONTREAL (AP) — Stan Mikita, the Chicago Black Hawks' center star, is a fellow who watches his bank balance more closely than his press clippings.

Mikita, who plays second fiddle to teammate Bobby Hull in the ballyhoo department, will settle for a big payday anytime. He forfeited his spot in the National Hockey League All-Star Game last October to hold out for a 1963-64 raise. Last week he picked up a $500 bonus for leading the NHL's point-getters at the season's halfway mark.

The Czechoslovakian-born sparkplug of Chicago's Scooter Line took the cash award by virtue of a four-goal edge on Montreal's Jean Beliveau, who tied Mikita in total points.

NCAA FINDS COLLEGES ARE "BEHAVING"

By WILL GRIMSLEY

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Association still is cracking the whip but some of the sting is gone.

"It's not that we're getting soft," Walter Byers, executive director of the NCAA, said today after chiding five institutions for recruiting violations and relaxing sanctions against a sixth. "It's just that the colleges are behaving better—we are having fewer and fewer major abuses."

The University of Iowa and little Centenary College of Shreveport, La., each drew a one year probation. Alabama and Houston were officially reprimanded, and Washington State got off lightest of all—a word of caution.

SANCTIONS RELAXED

At the same time, Indiana University, under a four-year probationary penalty, had its sanctions relaxed so that Indiana athletes might compete in events pointing to the 1964 Olympic Games at Tokyo.

Leniency was the mood of the feared NCAA council, sports policy-making body of some 600 colleges and universities, in disclosing punishment for those members who had not adhered strictly to the rules.

Besides Indiana, New Mexico State, Hardin-Simmons, Dayton and Colorado are major universities which have been slapped with sanctions in recent years. Most of these sanctions end this year.

The University of Iowa was found guilty of the largest number of transgressions—enough to fill a full page of typewritten copy.

LIST OF CHARGES

They included:

1. A football player who held a campus job during summer school and received pay for work he didn't perform. This happened in 1961.

2. A basketball player, holding an off-campus job, received a $75 advance from his employer and then dropped out of school before paying back the money.

3. A group of basketball players visiting the campus were given uniforms and permitted to practice with members of the university team, at times in presence of the coaches.

4. A football player was contacted at another institution without Iowa first contacting the athletic director of the other school.

GARY PETERS TRIES TO CUT DOWN ON CURVE

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO (AP)—Gary Peters of the Chicago White Sox, American League Rookie of the Year in 1963, is a pitcher with too big of a curve ball.

"That's his only weakness," said Sox pitching coach Ray Berres. "We've been working on cutting it down this winter. Gary has been working with our Sarasota team of the Florida Instructional League."

Southpaw Peters will be shooting for 20 victories this year after a rookie mark of 19-8. He had a 2.33 earned run average, struck out 189 and walked 68.

ONLY PROBLEM

"That big curve is his only problem," Berres said. "It leaves the ball hanging there to be hit out of the park. Or it comes in sometimes and hits a batter's feet. We're cutting it down, so when he does throw a curve it will get over the plate. His slider still explodes up there. But his curve is so big a batter can anticipate it."

Peters thinks he can take some of the bigness out of his curve.

"I want it to break about one foot," he said. "It has been breaking two feet. But I won't know if I have it licked until I start throwing hard."

WON 11 IN ROW

Peters won 11 games in a row in one stretch in compiling his 19 triumphs last year. But he slumped from Labor Day on, and failed in four attempts to nail No. 20.

"My arm just got tired, and I didn't have any snap in my delivery," he said. "We had a lot of injuries to our starting pitchers late in the year and I worked several times with only two or three days rest. So did Juan Pizarro and he came up with a sore arm. Mine didn't get sore, but there wasn't much life left in it."

"After working on my curve and pick-off move to first base, I'm satisfied that I'll be a better pitcher. Barring injury I should have a better year this time. Remember, I wasn't even a starting pitcher for the first month in 1963."

FLOYD WINS IN STOCKHOLM

STOCKHOLM (AP) — "I'll never give up my hope for a chance to meet Sonny Liston again but I realize that maybe I don't deserve it yet. I want some more matches here first."

That was Floyd Patterson's reaction to his Monday night victory over Santo Amonti, the first short step on his comeback campaign after failing to survive the first round of two title bouts with Liston.

"I consider the victory a step on the road toward a new chance at the

Greater Confidence Seen In '64 Business Upswing

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — Rising stock prices and fatter corporate profits have cast a rosy glow over most of the predictions business executives are busy issuing these days.

Caution, often a dominant note in such forecasts in the past, is less in evidence this year. Rather, confidence that still loftier heights will be climbed in 1964 is the general keynote.

On such confidence at business and consumer levels economic growth is built—on overconfidence it has often stubbed its toes.

WILL STRESS UPSWING

In financial circles there is general expectation that President Johnson in his State of the Union message Wednesday will stress the prospects for a continued business upswing which his economic advisers have been expressing.

Still, one chief reason today's business picture is so bright is that the caution of the last year or so has kept most businessmen from repeating the mistakes that led past business upswings into excesses and caused recessions. There has been no big buildup in inventories, for example, and no rush to over-expand industrial capacity.

The absence of such excesses is cited as one of the strongest factors in the industrial and trade position at present and of the chance that today's business upswing may achieve a record for longevity.

MARKET CONTROLS

And in the stock market, also, signs of excesses still aren't too convincing. The public may be coming back into the market, but the professionals seem in control. And the public hasn't indulged as yet in the excess speculation that sent the 1961 market for untried and questionable stocks to a peak that led to a bust.

For all of the general optimism today, there is the usual hard core of observers whose motto is: "When everyone seems to be predicting a big year ahead, watch out!" They are slow to believe that a new era is at hand—an era in which the business cycle is a thing of the past. The present upswing is nearly three years old now, a near record for peacetime. The pessimists like to point out that optimism and the forsaking of caution has often reached a peak just when the economic upturn also was topping out.

HEALTHY ECONOMY

But today's statistics speak loudly of the health of the economy now. They also foretell a momentum that seems sure to keep the prosperity going for some months to come.

If this leads to a forsaking of caution by leading industrialists, then the ranks of the worriers will increase.

Already these pessimists can point to some lagging sectors of the economy. Manufacturing companies aren't hiring or rehiring workers at a rate the growth advocates wish. New orders of durable goods have slowed after an earlier spurt. Construction outlays as a whole are above a year ago, but lagging are new contracts for industrial and commercial contracts. The announced intentions of business to expand its plant or buy new equipment show a lower increase over last year than the general glow of the economic statistics would seem to inspire.

Kennedy Films Stolen From Car

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Thieves broke into Rep. Henry B. Gonzalez' car Sunday and took $450 in cameras and undeveloped photographs of the late President John F. Kennedy, taken during his trip to Texas.

Recent film of President Lyndon B. Johnson also was taken. Gonzalez said thieves pried open a window vent to enter his locked car on a down street.

During spring training the Yankees will play two night games at their Fort Lauderdale base. They meet the Dodgers under light on April 6 and the Senators on April 10.

BERLIN WALL SEALED AGAIN BY COMMIES

BERLIN (AP) — The East German Communists sealed the Berlin wall again Monday, ending 17 days of joyous family reunions and heart-breaking partings.

A record number of more than a quarter million West Berliners poured into the Communist zone Sunday — the last day for visits under a Christmas agreement negotiated between the West Berlin city government and the Communist East German regime. The crossings started Dec. 19.

THOUSANDS WAIT

The crush was so big that tens of thousands returning to West Berlin were still waiting at the snow-covered Communist checkpoints when the visiting period expired at midnight.

Authorities said 1,318,000 permits were issued for crossings, but many West Berliners made several trips.

"The honeymoon is over," observed a Westerner. But there were flickering hopes the West Berlin government could negotiate a new agreement with the Reds in talks scheduled to start this week.

WARN BRANDT

The Western Allies, who are responsible for the security of West Berlin, have given their blessings to the talks. But they have warned Mayor Willy Brandt not to jeopardize the Western stand against recognition of the East German Communist regime.

The Communists have tried to use previous talks to support their theory that there are three Germanys—East, West and a "free city" of Berlin.

They have also been using the reunions to feed their propaganda mill, claiming the crossings were made possible by Communist humanitarianism.

Under the expired agreement, only West Berliners with close relatives were permitted to make the crossings. For many it was their first family reunion since construction of the wall Aug. 13, 1961.

"I wish I had not gone over there," sobbed a 43-year-old West Berlin optician after returning from a reunion with his wife. "The parting with my wife was horrible. We don't know when we will see each other again."

A worker who returned with his wife and baby after seeing his parents said:

"We cried and cried. The wounds were opened again. We had become used to being separated from my mother and father...of course, my (grandmother) was happy, but the farewell...please don't ask me any more."

"Enough tears flowed during these days to wash the wall away," said one West Berliner.

Elevated trains coming from East Berlin's Friedrich Strasse station were packed tightly for the first time in years. The people were quiet or talked only in low voices. The eyes of many women were red from crying.

Hurls Candy In Robber's Face

CINCINNATI (AP)—It could only happen in a nut house. A female clerk wielding a pound of peanut brittle routed a hold-up man.

Police said Mrs. Gladys McKinney of Covington, Ky., was working at Morrow's Nut House Sunday night when a man asked for two pounds of peanut brittle.

She put one pound on a scoop scale. The man pulled a revolver and told her to forget the rest of the candy and open the cash register.

Mrs. McKinney threw the scoopful of peanut brittle in the man's face and screamed. He fled.

Shortly before midnight police said they had picked up a suspect. They declined to identify him.

Court To Act On Va. Schools

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court agreed Monday to rule on requests that it take prompt, final action to reopen public schools of Prince Edward County, Va., on a desegregated basis by next September.

County education officials closed Prince Edward public schools in 1959 to avoid court-ordered desegregation.

The Prince Edward racial controversy has been in courts since May 1951. It was one of the original school desegregation cases decided by the Supreme Court in 1954.

In 1955 the Supreme Court returned the case to lower federal courts with instructions that they enforce with all deliberate speed the 1954 decision outlawing school segregation. More litigation followed in federal and Virginia state courts.

The Supreme Court, in an unsigned order, said that "in view of the long delay in the case" since the 1954 decision, and the importance of the questions presented, it will hear arguments March 30 on the case.

TRUAX PUSHES GOVERNOR'S CAUSE IN '64

HARRISBURG (AP)—Republican state chairman Craig Truax began to beat the Scranton-Ford President drum out in public this past weekend.

Truax said in a statement that he would ask the GOP National Committee at its meeting in Washington D. C., this week to consider Scranton's qualification for the party's presidential nomination.

Truax will be in Washington for both the national committee meeting and a conference of the state chairmen.

GOING TO D.C.

"Pennsylvania Republican want all state parties to consider the sound ability and voter attractiveness of our governor, who, among other fine leaders, is being discussed as a presidential nominee," he said.

Scranton will be in Washington Wednesday evening for a dinner with the state's GOP congressional delegation.

At Truax's invitation, he is scheduled to mingle later with the members of the national committee and other state chairmen at an "open house" in a downtown hotel.

TALKING POINTS

Truax said also he would stress these points in talking with the GOP leaders of the other 49 states:

"That the Pennsylvania GOP is confident of carrying the state for the fourth consecutive time. "—And that intra-state and interstate organization and unity is indispensable in the pre-convention period."

He continued in his statement: "We cannot afford to expend time, effort or money attacking anything but the surmountable blocks we must overcome to win in November."

"At the top of the list of needs for national action is the need to take advantage of an opportunity to make startling progress in urban areas."

Fox Hunting Club Moving To York Co.

MEDIA, Pa. (AP)—The Rose Tree Fox Hunting Club will sell its 71 acres in Delaware County and move to a larger tract in York County, according to plans disclosed over the weekend.

William C. Elliott, joint master of fox hounds, said many of the members felt "hunting down in this part of the country is pretty well finished off. . ." He said developments are closing in on the club.

The York County site is about 20 miles square and includes 40 acres of ground at New Bridgeville for kennels and staff. The site is bounded on the south by the Maryland state line, on the west by U. S. Route 111, on the north by the Lincoln Highway and on the east by the Susquehanna River.

Rose Tree Fox Hunting Club was founded in 1859.

Elliott said the Delaware County site would be sold to the highest bidder. Land in the area, he said, has been selling for $5,000 to $7,000 an acre.

ARREST 25 IN GANG MURDER

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Two youths were charged with murder and 23 others faced other charges as a result of weekend outbreaks of violence that included a gang killing.

William S. Jackson, 16, and James Banks, 17, were charged with the fatal shooting of Laurence Edward Plummer, 20, in a gang fight Saturday night according to police.

Detectives said the shooting climaxed a series of fist fights between rival Negro gangs in North Philadelphia.

All involved were Negroes, the police said.

Sgt. Frank Brennan of the homicide unit, said a sawed-off .22 caliber rifle, believed to be the murder weapon, was found at Jackson's home. Brennan said Jackson admitted firing the weapon first then handing it to Banks who fired a wild shot.

Twenty-three other youths were arrested, also Saturday, following a fight between two Negro gangs in West Philadelphia. Four youths were slightly wounded by shotgun pellets.

SEEK REPEAL OF HARNESS RACING LAW

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Christian Concern Committee, a Protestant church group, called over the weekend for a new drive to repeal the state's 1959 harness racing law.

The committee, headed by the Rev. O. Bruce Poulson, urged its members to elect legislators this fall who would vote to abolish the law which authorizes the pari-mutuel betting at licensed tracks in the state.

The committee's argument is centered on provisions of the act which require the Agriculture Department to appropriate some of the betting taxes to county fairs and agricultural associations.

Included in the committee membership are the Lord's Day Alliance; the National Reformed Association; the State Federation of Men's Bible Classes; the State Christian Endeavor Union; the State Grange; the State Sabbath School Association; the State Young Men's Christian Association; the State Temperance League; the Sabbath Association of Western Pennsylvania, and the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

They were arrested, also Saturday, following a fight between two Negro gangs in West Philadelphia. Four youths were slightly wounded by shotgun pellets.

The car on top is a 1964 Dodge 330 two-door sedan. It has a unitized, rust-protected body, front seat belts, an alternator electrical system, self-adjusting brakes and a 225 cubic inch, six-cylinder engine. It will go 32,000 miles between major grease jobs, 4,000 miles between oil changes.

The car on the bottom is the same model, a 1964 Dodge 330 two-door sedan. And we can say the same good things about it.

There's one difference. It's equipped the way many people buy cars these days. For a fact, Dodge offers a full line of cars in the low-price field. Sedans, hardtops, convertibles, wagons, the works. They call 'em "The Dependables," because they are.

James MARLOW Reports

By The Associated Press

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, up against two tests since he took office, has worked on one from the beginning and starts in earnest on the second one today. His destiny is interlocked with both of them.

The first—how to keep himself in the public eye and mind, favorably, to get elected next November. President Kennedy had almost three years to do this. Johnson has less than a year. He has been working overtime at it.

The second—how to get work out of the Congress. It has been criticized for laziness and stalling. It is perhaps the most criticized Congress in this century. It shows not much sign of embarrassment.

POLITICAL HELP

He will help himself politically by staying in public view with statements, pronouncements, programs and camera appearances. He will hurt himself politically if he can't get his programs through Congress.

No wonder, if numbers are the yardstick. In the House his Democrats outnumber Republicans 256 to 178 and in the Senate 67 to 33. But at this time in American politics and history the numbers are part of a myth.

The myth is that there are only two political parties. Actually, there are several, although all huddle under the test of one party or the other. Each is made up of liberals, conservatives and reactionaries.

For this reason—because the various groups shift and team up, ignoring party labels on specific issues—presidential programs often get ignored or slaughtered.

It is ironic that the more successful a president is—say in foreign affairs, in guiding the economy to prosperity, in giving the people through his leadership a sense of safety and well-being—the less he'll get from Congress.

The reason: Congress seems to have reached a point where it is reluctant to act unless there is a crisis or unless it is under great public pressure in some particular moment of public need.

But when things are going well, in the fields outside Congress, the less action can be expected. That's about the best explanation that can be offered for congressional delay on a tax cut and civil rights in 1963.

This year being an election year there will be a special incentive for both House and Senate to do more than last year so those seeking re-election can point to something when they go to the voters next November.

It is this psychology of an election year which may be Johnson's greatest help in trying to get his programs through Congress. Johnson adds new ones in his State of the Union message this week.

But the election pressures alone won't mean success for Johnson, not in a Congress with such divisions in attitudes as this one, plus the yearly wheeling and dealing on issues.

Since Johnson is not as placid a man as Kennedy—at least on the surface—the chances look good that he may get tough, if Congress frustrates him, and get into fights. Fights, in turn, might hurt him in the public eye.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Premier Khrushchev makes a habits of sending best wishes for the New Year and hopes for peace to American presidents although there have been some notable gaps between his wishes and performance.

He did it with Presidents Eisenhower and Kennedy. Now he has done it with President Johnson. He gave Kennedy some miserable days. He seems to have quieted down a bit since then. But that's only maybe.

If Johnson takes his cue from Kennedy he will have a summit conference with the Russian before the 1964 presidential race next fall. Whether or not it relieved international tensions, it would be good American politics.

TWO MESSAGES

Khrushchev sent two New Year's messages in 1961, one to Eisenhower, the retiring president, and one to Kennedy, who was then still only president-elect. Then the Russian sent congratulations when Kennedy was sworn in Jan. 20.

Kennedy responded. The two men expressed a desire for a fresh attempt at negotiations on East-West problems. For extra measure, Khrushchev threw in a goodwill gesture.

Five days after Kennedy's inauguration Khrushchev released two surviving crewmen of a U.S. Air Force RB47 jet shot down in the Barents Sea off northern Russia the previous July 1.

TOOK MEASURES

Even though Kennedy and Khrushchev may have doubted they would accomplish anything if they met, they probably wanted to take each other's measure close up. So they had a summit meeting in Vienna June 3-4, 1961.

Nothing tangible, at least nothing that could be put in writing, came of it. The two men issued one of those typical diplomatic communiques expressing good intentions. As it turned out, Khrushchev's intentions weren't very good.

Khrushchev, after meeting Kennedy face-to-face, must have figured he had a soft touch because he didn't lose any time trying to break the President's back. He began putting on pressure to drive the Allies out of Berlin.

BEGAN INFAMOUS WALL

Then, on Aug. 15, 1961, Khrushchev's Communists began building their famous—or infamous—wall between East and West Berlin. If Kennedy had ordered it battered down, there might have been war.

He did the next best thing. He assured the West Berliners this country would stand by them. Kennedy made a nationwide television address that probably gave the Russian second thoughts.

And he asked Congress for authority to call up 250,000 reserves. Congress gave it to him in a hurry.

While all this was keeping the world edgy, Khrushchev hit Kennedy from another direction. He announced Aug. 31, 1961, Russia would resume nuclear testing. And it did. So did the United States. That got everybody upset.

FINALLY GOT BAN

Nevertheless, on Jan. 1, 1962, Khrushchev sent Kennedy another one of his New Year's greetings. And it was that same year he tried to slip his missiles into Cuba. That was in the fall of 1962. Kennedy backed him down.

And on Jan. 1, 1963—just as if getting caught with his missiles in Cuba was hardly more than getting caught with his hand in the jam pot, which is what it may have seemed like to him—Khrushchev sent Kennedy New Year's greetings.

By this time Kennedy had about given up hope, it seems, that Khrushchev would ever agree to a nuclear test ban treaty. But Khrushchev did, and a treaty was wrapped and delivered by Oct. 7, 1963. It banned tests in the atmosphere, outer space and under the sea.

"HOT LINE" CAME

Khrushchev did more, too. He agreed with Kennedy to set up a "hot line"—a direct teletype communication—between the White House and the Kremlin so the two men could get in touch fast in case of crisis. That was in 1963, too.

By this time some other forces, with which Kennedy had nothing to do, were working on Khrushchev. His economy was in trouble—for instance, he needed a lot of wheat—and the split with his Red Chinese allies was wide open.

Khrushchev, who often appeared to be causing trouble just for the sake of it, began to look a little more reasonable. If Kennedy had lived, the two men might have made more progress. But Johnson is a new man.

SUMMIT USEFUL

He and Khrushchev probably want a close-up of each other, too, even if nothing comes of it soon. Johnson, a comparative unknown because of his vice presidency, is now a world leader. And he wants to act like one, as he has demonstrated in less than two months in office.

One good way to demonstrate it, as Kennedy decided early, is to have a summit meeting. That would attract the world's attention in a way Johnson's hammering on domestic economy never could.

And the summit—provided it

Seven Are Injured In Head-On Crash

SCOTCH PLAINS, N. J. (AP)

Seven persons—four of them children—were hospitalized after a head-on crash of a station wagon and automobile on Route 22 Sunday night.

The driver of the station wagon, Mrs. Janet G. Brady, 32, of Bethlehem, Pa., was in critical condition in Muhlenberg Hospital, Plainfield. Her children, Robert 9, Mary Ann 5, and Andrew, 1, all were in good condition.

The Brady station wagon, westbound, hurtled a three-foot-high concrete center barrier and collided with a car driven by Charles Allawas, 41, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Allawas, his wife Yolanda, 32, and their daughter Julie Ann, 6, also were hospitalized in good condition. Another daughter, Meryl, 5, was shaken up in the accident.

Police said they did not know what caused the accident or how the wagon got over the barrier.

Call COP Chiefs In To Harrisburg

HARRISBURG (AP)—Republican county chairmen and registration directors were called to Harrisburg today to discuss the party's registration drive for the 1964 election.

"The meeting will be the opening gun in our 1964 registration campaign," GOP state chairman Craig Truax said.

"It will be an intensive briefing session to tell each person attending what our job as a committee will be, who will join in the campaign, how the job must be done, when the job must be done and why we must do it now for 1964."

Gov. Scranton is expected to address the meeting.

TOKYO (AP)—Gen. Wallace M. Greene Jr., new commander of the U.S. Marine Corps, told a news conference in Tokyo there are no plans to reduce or redeploy the 190,000-man corps. Greene arrived in Tokyo today on a tour of Marine units in the Western Pacific.

didn't turn into a disaster—would give Johnson at home a stature none of his Republican competitors for the presidency could match if only because they're not in a position to.

It wouldn't cost Johnson anything to meet the Russian and, if they didn't settle anything, issue a joint communique expressing good intentions.

LBJ PREPARES FOR BUSY YEAR IN WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON (AP)

President Johnson was back at his White House desk Monday, preparing for what may be a grueling January-to-December job: trying to get Congress to enact his legislative program.

Johnson will fire his opening salvo Wednesday when he outlines his objectives in a State of the Union message. He is expected to urge the passage of key elements of the Kennedy administration program carried over from the last session—civil rights, tax reduction and health care for the elderly—and add some requests of his own.

Relaxed after a 12-day work-and-play vacation at his Texas ranch, the President scheduled a conference with Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and McGeorge Bundy, presidential adviser on national security affairs.

In his first days in office, Johnson was pretty much immune from political criticism. But now that the moratorium which followed President John F. Kennedy's assassination is over, political criticism is once more in vogue.

Johnson has promised economy in government without hampering the nation's space and defense efforts. Legislators will want to know how he intends to manage this.

In the last days at his ranch, the chief executive put in long hours on a budget that he has said will be in the neighborhood of $100 billion and on his State of the Union message. How these are received may indicate how much cooperation the one-time Senate Democratic leader is likely to get from his former congressional colleagues.

Burglar Asks For Retraction

RUTLAND, Vt. (AP)

The Rutland Herald reported that a burglar who looted a laundry also took a Salvation Army collection box.

The story drew a letter to the editor, which said, in part: "This is entirely untrue as I had no intention of stealing any such charity box."

"I brushed it off the counter upon leaving. The Salvation Army does good work with almost nothing in the way of funds."

"If you would be so kind as to print a retraction I would be eternally grateful."

The letter was unsigned.

FRANCE WILL AID CAMBODIA

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia

(AP)—France has pledged military and economic aid to its former territory of Cambodia, filling some of the gap left by Cambodia's rejection of U.S. aid.

French Defense Minister Pierre Messmer, speaking at a dinner in his honor Sunday night, said the aid would include tanks, trucks and planes for the Cambodian armed forces and professors for schools.

Cambodia's chief of state, Prince Norodom Sihanouk, expressed gratitude that France has decided "to fulfill the role in Asia which its prestige and the present situation make appropriate."

Sihanouk Dec. 13 decided to end U.S. aid to his southeast Asian nation and ordered Amer-

POLICE PROBE 11TH MURDER

BOSTON (AP) — Fingerprints in the apartment of Mary Ellen Sullivan, 19, apparently offer the only solid clue to the 11th unsolved sex strangling in this area since June 1962.

Miss Sullivan's nude body was found Saturday night in her second-floor apartment at the foot of Boston's Beacon Hill. Like the victims in the other 10 unsolved cases, she had been sexually molested.

The fingerprints were sent to Washington for check with FBI files.

Detectives made a house-to-house check of the Beacon Hill area Sunday, seeking information which might lead them to the killer who throttled Miss Sullivan with a nylon stocking and two nylon scarves.

Miss Sullivan, a clerk in a Boston finance company, moved into the apartment Jan. 1. Two other women shared the apartment with her. She had been living in Whitman, Mass.

The manner of Miss Sullivan's slaying bore many similarities to the 10 other unsolved stranglings. Only one woman had been strangled manually. The others were killed with articles of clothing, usually stockings.

All 11 deaths occurred within some 20 miles of Boston.

SEE NO TIES BETWEEN RUBY AND POLICEMEN

DALLAS (AP) — Dist. Atty. Henry Wade said Monday a lengthy police department investigation of the slaying of Lee Harvey Oswald shows "no evidence of collusion" between Jack Ruby and police officers.

Wade's statement came after he received a detailed two-volume report from Police Chief Jesse Curry on Ruby's slaying of the 24-year-old accused assassin of President Kennedy.

Curry also sent Wade a map of the City Hall basement and a manila folder with other evidence.

While millions watched on television Nov. 24, Ruby leaped forward and shot Oswald to death as officers led him through the basement. Curry ordered an investigation to determine how Ruby, who operated a downtown strip tease club, slipped into the heavily guarded basement.

"I've just begun to read the report," Wade said. "It will take me some time. But I'm informed there is no evidence of collusion between Ruby and any member of the police department, no evidence at all."

The district attorney said one volume of the report contained evidence which prosecutors could use on Ruby's murder trial. The other, he said, contained affidavits and other documents "which relate primarily to security measures in effect at the time."

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — South Korean government sources reported today that the United States has tentatively agreed to ship 400,000 tons of American farm surpluses to South Korea as the initial shipment under the 1964 surplus farm commodities program.

HE REGREW HAIR

An Ebb Registered Cosmetologist explains the exclusive Ebb Hair Treatment Method.

J. L. Thomas will be in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, at the Hotel Gettysburg on Wednesday, January 8, 1964. Hours: 1 to 8:30 p.m.

Now is the time to act on this great opportunity. Every hair-worried person (man or woman) should take advantage of this FREE CONSULTATION. If your scalp is still creating hair and you have dandruff, or excessive hair fall, excessive oiliness, dryness or itchy scalp, why not take 20 minutes of your time to see if you can be helped?

J. L. Thomas is a Staff Director of the Ebb Hair Specialists. He is qualified by experience and training to recommend the proper method to assure you of the fastest possible results in the shortest period of time at the least amount of cost to you.

The Ebb Method will not help those who are sick bald after years of gradual hair loss. We want to make it clear that Male Pattern Baldness is the cause of the great majority of cases of baldness and excessive hair loss, for which neither the Ebb Method nor any other method is effective.

But if there are other reasons for your hair problems, it is possible that you can be helped. Results are guaranteed (in writing) from the beginning to the end on a pro-rated basis by the Ebb Hair Specialists.

You have no reason to be skeptical. We make regular, scheduled visits to Gettysburg, Pa. How could we do this unless we gave results?

Why burden yourself with unhealthy hair and scalp. It costs you nothing to learn how so many people have benefited from the Ebb Method. Know how, experience and training offers you opportunity, satisfaction and results.

A Lovelier You

DUE THANKS. A thank you note is a test of the basics of courtesy. What's more it meters one's personal charm.

To delay writing thank-yous for a gift can only be thought unmannerly. An interval of 14 days is the limit, and that timing brings up to the deadline for the acknowledgement of holiday remembrances.

Good form also requires the use of appropriate stationery. Generally speaking, folded notepaper and small single sheets in classic colors — white, cream, gray or blue — would not play a writer false.

Furthermore, expressions of thanks to friends must be handwritten. Typing can only be justified when thanks are incorporated in a long, chatty letter to a close friend.

Thoughtful wording, of course, is what cues a writer's charm. Appreciation comes through best when you single out some detail about a gift that especially appeals to you. "Thank you for the scarf"—period—would express little enthusiasm and less wit.

A more gracious wording would be: "Your gift scarfs both my throat and head. It looks superb in the neckline of my new suit. Worn as a kerchief, it's a great topper for casuals. My thanks to you goes double!" In such phrasing the giver finds real gratitude and a compliment to her taste, too.

Above all, remember that to write a note that gives pleasure, you must take pleasure in writing it!

Scranton

"This underscores that some other states still can offer more opportunities to more persons than Pennsylvania can."

"This, however, does not detract from our justifiable pride that 1963 was the year in which Pennsylvania stopped moving in reverse."

Scranton said the austerity program his administration adopted in its first year and planned to continue in 1964 would largely enable state government to expand its services without a tax increase.

CUT EXPENSES

"It is in the general expenses of government, which includes most of the salaries and operating expenses of government, in which waste—particularly political waste—can occur."

"In the current budget—which was the first of this administration—we slashed that proportionate expenditure for general government, the first time it had been cut since the early 1940s."

"In the new budget, we've cut again, further evidence that the austerity program launched by this administration is no flash in the pan occurrence. It has gone on throughout the past year, and I am determined that it will continue throughout our term in office."

"This emphasis on economy in government operating expenses is responsible in no small measure for the fact that we shall finish this fiscal year with a surplus."

BALANCE BUDGET

"Furthermore, that surplus, along with increased revenues brought about by Pennsylvania's better economic condition, is the main reason we can balance the new budget without a tax increase."

Among the increases recommended by Scranton in the general fund outlays during the 1964-65 fiscal period:

"In the coming budget, perhaps the greatest human services item is an increase of nearly a quarter of a million dollars recommended for the Human Relations Commission."

"This increase, a nearly 50 per cent hike in the agency appropriation, will enable us to double the professional staff which works to head off racial conflicts before they can begin. I believe every Pennsylvanian recognizes the tremendous importance of this advance."

Scranton noted that 49 per cent of state spending in the current fiscal year goes to education. That percentage figure goes to 51 per cent in the new appropriations proposal.

Scranton listed these aims of his administration as a new year's wish for the people of Pennsylvania:

—A special session of the legislature to consider revision of the legislature to consider revision of the unemployment compensation program, now heavily in debt to the federal government, and implementation of Project 70 for recreational and natural resource development.

—Concentration on improving the administrative machinery of the state government.

—More intensive attention to industrial development.

—Greater understanding by the people of the functions of their state government.

—A greater level of political maturity on the state scene.

"Both parties could profitably determine that in 1964 they will spend more time considering the long term impact of issues on the future of the state, and less time on political nit-picking."

—To seek greater justice, greater charity, greater equality, in relationships between the races. "Let us not, however, underestimate the role of the human heart. The issue of civil rights will only be fully resolved when men of good will from both races — determine to resolve it in their hearts and in their consciences."

BAD FIRE AT RIVERSIDE, N. J.

RIVERSIDE, N.J. (AP)—The charred rubble of a movie theater and two stores, still smoldering today, testified to the fury of a fire that threatened the entire business district of this Burlington County community for two hours Monday.

Riverside firemen joined by companies from five nearby towns succeeded in halting the inferno but not before it also had severely damaged several other shops and apartments.

Ten families fled from apartments during the midday fire and four families at 235 Pavilion Ave. were left homeless. One fireman suffered arm burns. Township welfare director William N. Ruehmiling estimated the damage at $150,000.

He said the blaze started in the vicinity of 235 Pavilion Ave. and then roared through the Fox Movie Theater, a cigar shop in the theater building and the Holiday House furniture store. "It looked like the whole business district was going up," Ruehmiling said.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y.

(AP)—Cyprus has agreed to a proposal by Britain, Greece and Turkey for a U.N. observer to oversee the 10-day-old truce on the troubled Mediterranean island.

Cypriot Ambassador Z enon Rossides made the announcement after conferring with Secretary-General U Thant Monday. Britain hopes a U.N. presence will enable her to withdraw some of the 2,000 additional troops she rushed to her former colony after fighting broke out between Greek and Turkish Cypriots.

'PALACE' SHOW OFFERS MATCH FOR SULLIVAN

NEW YORK (AP)—The first serious competition in years for the Ed Sullivan Show—good, old fashioned vaudeville—turned up Saturday night on ABC. "The Hollywood Palace" as the new series is called, is a vast improvement on the Jerry Lewis program it replaced.

ABC sweetened the premiere show with some big names. Bing Crosby was host. Bob Newhart did one of his telephone monologues. Mickey Rooney was in a comedy sketch although it failed to come off very well.

Sullivan on his CBS show had a trump, however. He showed a tape made in Belgium last week of the singing Dominican sisters with "Soeur Sourire" herself playing guitar and singing the song which is a surprise hit record. It was a charming and happy start for his fast-paced show.

QUIZ SHOW

Still another quiz show made its debut on CBS Sunday afternoon. It is called "Alumni Fun" and features a competition between teams of graduates from two colleges for scholarship money.

This is a completely revised version of a dreary show seen briefly on ABC last season.

The questions are designed for the amusement of the audience rather than to show the brilliance of prominent alumni.

Most disappointing program of the weekend was Saturday night's "The Defenders," in which it made its occasional stab at comedy. It had the usually serious father-and-son team trying to make peace in the warring cast of a Broadway-bound show trying out in Boston.

The script just wasn't funny.

REPORT ENVOY IS EXECUTED

LONDON (AP)—The Bulgarian News Agency has reported the execution of Ivan Asen Christof Georgiev, former Bulgarian envoy to the U.N. who confessed he sold military and economic secrets to the American Central Intelligence Agency for $200,000.

The prosecution claimed the envoy spent most of the money on mistresses, including some supplied by the CIA.

Georgiev went on trial in Sofia Dec. 26. He pleaded guilty to selling secrets to the CIA between 1956 and 1961 while serving as counselor on the Bulgarian U.N. delegation in New York and later as an official of various government agencies.

The news service said sentence was carried out after Georgiev's appeal for a pardon was denied. He was sentenced to die before a firing squad.

Today In Washington

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

MRS. KENNEDY: Mrs. John F. Kennedy and her two children are back in the capital after 18 days at Palm Beach, Fla. The former First Lady and Caroline, 6, and John Jr., 3, returned Sunday to the Georgetown home of Undersecretary of State and Mrs. W. Averell Harriman, where they have been living since leaving the White House.

On her way to the Harriman house from Andrews Air Force Base, Mrs. Kennedy made a brief visit to her husband's grave in Arlington Cemetery.

The Kennedys spent Christmas and New Year's at the oceanfront home of C. Michael Paul, where the family had spent several Christmases before Kennedy's assassination.

POSTAL JOB CUTS: Postmaster General John A. Gronouski plans to carry out a 5,000-employee reduction in postal service employment by leaving vacant jobs unfilled.

Gronouski announced reduction quotas for the department's 15 regions Saturday and said that no regular employee would lose his job.

Gronouski announced the manpower reduction earlier in compliance with President Johnson's directive to keep government employment at a minimum. The cuts are scheduled to go into effect by June 30 and will save $30 million annually.

Regional directors were told by Gronouski that no mail-handling jobs should be eliminated that would impair essential services.

ECONOMIC EFFECTS: Two Cabinet members have warned that congressional failure to pass the pending $11 billion tax cut bill would have serious effects on the nation's economy.

Secretary of Commerce Luther Hodges said that if the tax cut is not approved "we would lose $10 billion or $15 billion in our gross national product increase."

Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz added that "it would mean about two million jobs fewer than with the tax cut."

Appearing on ABC's radio and television program "Issues and Answers," Hodges and Wirtz indicated they expected the tax cut to be enacted and 1964 to be prosperous.

DRAFT STUDY: A Pentagon civilian staff is making a continuing study of the nation's draft laws.

The study, which was stepped up in September, is directed by William Gorham, deputy assistant secretary of defense for special studies and requirements.

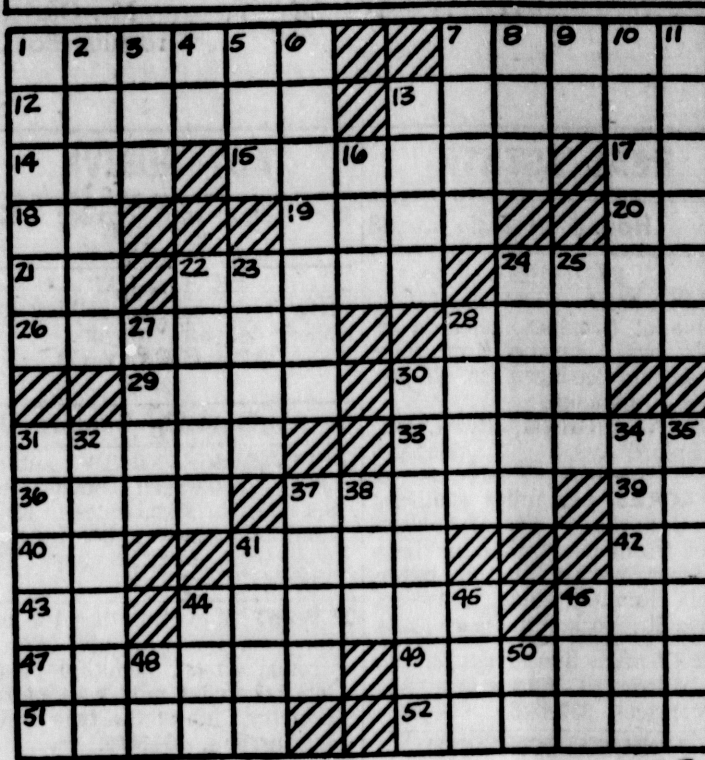

Gorham said Sunday the study "will put us in better position" when the present draft law expires in 1967. Gorham said the Army faces a need of replacing 500,000 men annually and that voluntary enlistments are not the answer, making some type of draft seem necessary.

DISCUSS SLATE OF DEMOCRATS TO BEAT SCOTT

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Some of the state's top Democrats got together Sunday night to discuss possible candidates and ways to beat Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., in next November's election.

Although most were silent as they left the informal conference, those close to the meeting said four persons remained under serious consideration. They are State Sen. Robert P. Casey of Scranton, State Sen. Leonard C. Staisey of Duquesne of Allegheny County, State Superior Court Judge Harry M. Montgomery of Pittsburgh and Genevieve Blatt, state secretary of internal affairs, of Pittsburgh.

OPPOSE SHAPP

At least two top Democrats indicated opposition to the candidacy of Milton J. Shapp, the Montgomery County industrialist who has announced he will for the office. One of the leaders said he didn't think Shapp could beat Scott. The other proposed a motion to have Shapp's name removed from the list of hopefuls, but no vote was taken on the motion.

State Sen. William J. Lane of Washington County has also announced he is a candidate for the office.

About the only party member talking after the meeting was Otis B. Morse, the state Democratic chairman. He described the session as an informal conference preceding the upcoming national committee meeting in Washington. He said those at the meeting didn't discuss any candidate specifically.

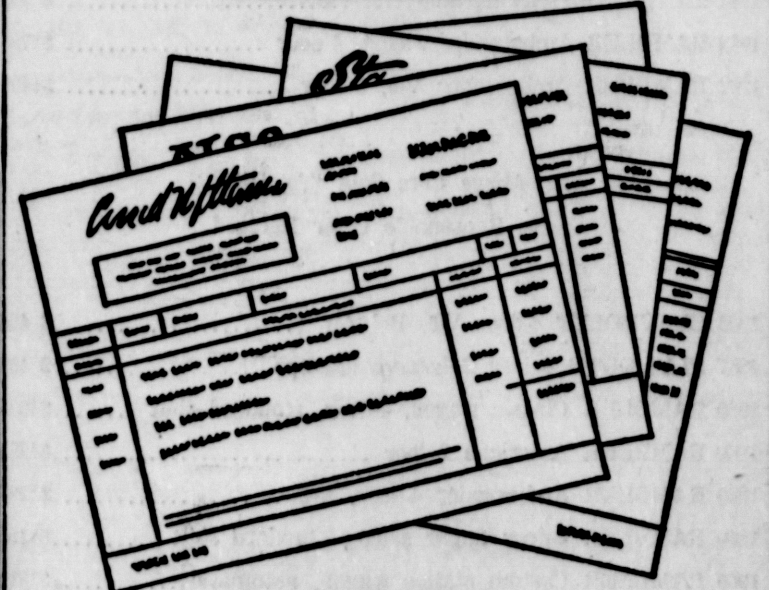

TATE TAKES OFFICE

Most of the leaders were here for Monday's inauguration of James H. Tate to a full four-year term as Philadelphia Mayor.

Besides Morse those at the meeting included Tate, Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., former Philadelphia mayor Richardson Dilworth, former Gov. David L. Lawrence, Francis R. Smith,

WHEN YOU NEED MONEY TO PAY YOUR BILLS

Remember...

With THRIFT in Town You Have a Friend Around

One of the biggest problems in the family budget is all the bills that have piled up. And they all seem to fall due at the same time. The easiest way to pay them is with a bill consolidation loan from your nearby Thrift office. Borrow what you need and pay it back in monthly payments "tailored" to your budget.

At Thrift, a bill consolidation loan or any loan is a private matter. Our interest rates comply with the State of Pennsylvania's Small Loan Act (loans up to $600), and the Pennsylvania Consumer Discount Company Act (loans of $601 to $3500).

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Motion picture exhibitors say actress Doris Day was the No. 1 drawing card at theaters in 1963, just as she was in 1962 and 1960.

A poll conducted in Canada and the United States listed these other top box office stars, in order: John Wayne, Rock Hudson, Jack Lemmon, Cary Grant, Elizabeth Taylor, Elvis Presley, Sandra Dee, Paul Newman, and Jerry Lewis.

Here's a list of American production cars with standard engines that deliver more horsepower per pound of car weight than the '64 Oldsmobile F-85 Cutlass Holiday Coupe or Sports Coupe:
